School Description and Mission Statement (School Year 2021–2022)

The Community School of San Diego High School is a functional life skills program for students with moderate to severe disabilities in the areas of cognitive abilities, language and/or behavior in grades 9 – 22 years of age. We provide a "naturalistic" learning environment that offers students detailed visual supports and kinesthetic (hands on) learning. Detailed student data is collected daily and is available to the IEP team to assist in individual program development and to effectively monitor student progress.

We provide students with intensive Additional Adult Assistance (AAA) and behavior supports that are based on the principles of Applied Behavior Analysis and managed by our Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA). AAA is available at the following levels 100%, 66% and 50%. The level of AAA for each student is a determination that is made by the IEP Team, which includes the sending school district. The goal of Additional Adult Assistance is to promote independence and to reduce the amount of AAA required for students to benefit from their educational environment. Group and individual speech and occupational therapy are also provided to students per IEP recommendation.

When an IEP team requests entrance for a student into the program, our directors review paperwork and observe the student to determine if the Community School of San Diego High School can meet the student's needs. Considerations for student enrollment by the school include previous school records, level of required behavior and instructional support, and student interests and learning styles. Students may transition into the program at any point in the school year if there is space available. When the IEP team agrees that the data supports doing so, the AAA will be faded. This is determined by behavior frequency, intensity and duration, as well as progress with behavior goals, number and level of prompts and progress with self-regulation and self-management.

Our mission is to provide excellence in education to our students and their families.

To do this, we work in an “out of the box” fashion. We use and create a curriculum that works for our students. It not only includes a functional academic portion, but also community-based instruction, daily living skills, character education, self-management, self-regulation, and anything else our students need in order to learn what it means to be quality community members. In addition, we use evidence-based practices when developing and implementing programs with our students.

An authorization is defined as the services that an educator is authorized to provide to students.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

State testing in all areas (Language Arts, Math, Science and Physical Fitness) has less than 10 students participate. Percentages are not calculated when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

Vocational/Career Development Programs (School Year 2020–2021)

Our teachers have amazing connections in our community. There are several businesses who open their doors to our students, so they can experience what it is to hold a job and gain experience in a non-school setting.

Students start in the classroom and around the school learning basic career skills, such as: being on time, following a schedule, listening to directions, etc. Once they are ready, staff arrange a job out in the community for students to generalize their skills.

Being in the community not only generalizes vocational skills, but academic and social skills as well. Students must navigate their way through the community to their worksites, appropriately communicate with their supervisor/s in addition to teachers, and use different skills depending on the job they're doing (ie: counting, making change, talking to people (language skills), reading charts and lists, etc.)

Teachers can judge the success of the program by students' participation and how well they excel in their community jobs.

Courses for University of California (UC) and/or California State University (CSU) Admission

This program is functional and is for students bound for a Certificate of Completion in lieu of a high school diploma.

C. Engagement

State Priority: Parental Involvement

Opportunities for Parental Involvement (School Year 2021–2022)

We welcome and encourage parent involvement as it is a big part of our students' success. There are many ways to be a part of the Community High School team. One of the biggest ways is communication between parents and school staff. Consistency between home and school is essential for our students. Other ways to be involved are being part the IEP process, attending school functions such as fundraisers and social events and volunteering. Along with the above listed ways, there are many other opportunities to get involved.

State Priority: Pupil Engagement

Dropout Rate and Graduation Rate (Four-Year Cohort Rate)

Being a school for students with moderate to severe special needs, our students do not work towards a high school diploma and do not drop out of school.

State Priority: School Climate

Suspensions and Expulsions

Instead of suspending or expelling our students, we work with them, so they understand what is and is not ok to do.

School Safety Plan (School Year 2021–2022)

The safety of our students, staff and school visitors is of the utmost importance to us. The school safety plan is an active document and is available in the office in an easily accessible location. It is updated and reviewed with staff each year based on actual school incidents, changes to staff and students, and staff trainings.

The plan contains important information and procedures to deal with any kind of situation, including both on and off campus situations. Some of the main issues for which procedures have been written are, but not limited to: student behavior issues, field trips, travel to and from an off campus location, administering medication, child abuse reporting, sexual harassment, release of students at the end of the school day, medical emergencies and natural disasters.

Evacuation procedures are practiced regularly for emergency scenarios that would require evacuation of the campus. In addition, during community outings, staff are provided with business size cards with a brief description of what our program is about, emergency information and how to contact the school.

D. Other SARC Information

School Enrollment and Class Size

Our total school capacity is 36 students (12 students max per teacher). We've chosen to remain a small school in order to give as much individual attention to our students as possible. Even though all our students are on individual education programs designed to work at their specific learning level, classes are grouped according to where students are in their learning process. Students' communication and social skills are also taken into consideration.

Ratio of Pupils to Academic Counselor (School Year 2020–2021)

Due to the needs of our students and that we are Certificate of Completion program, we do not have Academic Counselors.

Types of Services Funded (Fiscal Year 2020–2021)

Our students have such diverse needs that most of the time they are working towards individualized goals. However, most of those goals are supported by a Speech Language Pathologist (SLP), Occupational Therapist (OT), Community Based Instruction (CBI) and our vocational/career development curriculum in addition to classroom instruction.

Ultimately everything overlaps in a student's education, but the SLP works specifically on language and critical thinking skills, the OT focuses on fine and gross motor movements and the CBI and vocational/career development take what is being learned in the classroom out into the community to provide a real-world approach. Our goal is to help students generalize and understand why it is important to learn what is being taught.

Professional Development

Every Wednesday afternoon and 3 afternoons a week during ESY are dedicated to staff development. Major areas of focus are whatever the Teachers, Therapists and Program Director determine will benefit the students. Our student population is so diverse in needs, that it varies from class to class and in many cases, from student to student, as to what is most beneficial.

The biggest source of professional development for our staff are peer mentoring and inhouse workshops provided by a staff member who specializes in a subject or has attended an off campus workshop or conference.
